Objectives

The objective is to provide students with a sophisticated educational experience at the cutting edge of Evidenced Backed Cognitive Behavioral Therapy and Coaching. Efforts will be made to complement and interdigitate clinical and theoretical seminars with each other.

Structure

The program is scheduled for Tuesday evenings 7–10 p.m. Starting January 2010 at 3355 Via Lido, Suite 205, Newport Beach, CA 92663. Seminar sessions are offered for the First Year which consists of essential aspects of ASR and TA 101. The second year is recommended for Licensed Mental Health Care Professionals, Nurses and continuing WANT students. An exploration, in depth, of significant areas in personality development through out the life cycle will be studied.

In addition to the 33 Tuesday evening seminars one Saturday per month will be scheduled for case consultations. All students are welcome to observe. Students wishing elective individual consultations or supervision, in addition to the Saturday group consultation, will have this service available to them, and fees will be set in accordance with what is affordable.

Tuition:

A $50.00 non-refundable application fee must be included with the application. Tuition is $1,800 per year, plus $150 materials fee, $975 to be paid at the time of enrollment and prior to the commencement of each subsequent semester. Tuition includes group consultations on Saturdays once a month throughout the year.

Privileges:

Participants will have the privilege of using the WANT® Institute Library. In addition they will be invited to attend the Institute's CEU Seminars 7 Hr. 7 Units for Nurses #12168, MFT'S and LCSW #PCE243

Note: To insure the ongoing solvency of the Dr. Pat Allen WANT® Institute we ask for a commitment of a 10% tithing of gross income from all fees made from coaching and workshops using the WANT® Institute Information. The WANT® Institute is tax deductible.

Directions: Costa Mesa Freeway (55 south) to its end on Newport Blvd.; follow Newport Boulevard south.
